

Ron Caswell and Major Hans C. Petersen en route Korsør, (Sjælland) to Nyborg, (Funen), together with Major (ret) Colman VonKeviczky, on board Great Belt ferry, November, 1967, to drive further to Kolding, on mainland Jutland, to continue with the symposium of UFO documentation and photo presentation begun in Copenhagen.

On their return to Copenhagen the following day, they began the onerous task of annotating and correlating the various memoranda relating to the Resolution of the International UFO Congress held in Mainz, West Germany, on November 3rd – 6th, and preparing the translation into the English version for its eventual despatch to the United Nations Organisation in New York. The three negotiators were also to decide on the wording of a letter to be sent to Dr. Kurt Waldheim, Austrian ambassador to the UN and the Chairman of the Outer Space Affairs Committee. Ronald's letter was to hold the right degree of respect for the eminent authority that he was addressing, but his determination was also to make reference to the fact that by far the greater degree of investigation and publicising of the UFO case over the past number of years had been carried out by private, civilian, UFO Study groups, and that now was a time when authority into statements on the subject should be taken over by the body of the United Nations Organisation itself.

PO 141/I(4)

5 December 1967

Dear Mr. Vonkeviczky,

Thank you for your letter of November 1967 and the enclosure.

With reference to our previous numerous correspondence on the subject of UFO, I must inform you once more of the strictly limited role of the Outer Space Affairs Group of the United Nations in this regard. The subject of unidentified flying objects has never been an item on the agenda of the United Nations Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space. It is only if a Member State of the United Nations decides that this is a subject which should be brought up for the attention of the Committee that it can be officially taken up. For these reasons, there is no basis under which I can give support to any international effort to solve the UFO problem.

Meanwhile, I have noted your organisation's concern about the UFO problem.

Yours sincerely,

Chief, Outer Space Affairs Group. " Unquote.

It was encouraging to note that our proposals concerning the setting-up of an International UFO Research Institute had received the full attention of an official body.

Shortly afterwards, a letter was received from Mr. A.H. Abdel-Ghani himself.

'UNITED NATIONS - NATIONS UNIES.

NEW YORK.

31 January 1968.

'Dear Messrs. Caswell and Petersen,

On behalf of His Excellency Dr. Kurt Waldheim, I acknowledge receipt of your letter to him dated December 1967.

For your information, Dr. Waldheim has already received and acknowledged receipt of a copy of the resolution relating to the International UFO Research Institute. Furthermore the United Nations is not engaged in investigating the UFO phenomena, as no country has ever raised the question in the United Nations.

Yours sincerely,

In excess of a hundred copies of memos and other documentary and photographic materials were sent across the Atlantic, from CVK to H.C., over the years of their acquaintanceship, from letters to many of the foreign delegates at the UN, to various Secretary Generals who succeeded U Thant at the helm of the International Ship of State that UNO purported, - and failed miserably, - to be. Both Danish Air Force Major Hans Petersen and former Hungarian General Staff Major Colman VonKeviczky were invited, in turn, to address the House of Lords All Party UFO Study Group, chaired by Ronald's former host in his Kensington apartment, The Hon. Brinsley le Poer Trench, later Lord Clancarty, as a peer among peers. "Ho-Cee's" invitation came in 1983. The following year, both UFO veterans were invited to an Audience at Vienna's Hofburg Castle with the Austrian President Kirshläger, to discuss UFOs with a quite receptive President in an Audience that stretched over double the scheduled time slot of 35 minutes.

In 1985, Colman VonKeviczky was to face up once again, to his feudal enemy. The CIA.

Re: Appeal No. 85-0921

A/E 5 1985

Dear Major VonKeviczky:

You appealed from the action of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on a referral from the Central Intelligence Agency, as part of your request to the CIA for access to records pertaining to yourself.

After careful consideration of your appeal, I have decided to affirm the initial action in this case. All of the material pertaining to you is classified and I am affirming the denial of access to it on the basis of 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(1). This material is being referred to the Department Review Committee for review and determination whether it warrants continued classification under Executive Order 12356. You will be notified if the Committee's final decision results in the declassification of any information. This information cannot be the subject of a discretionary release.

Judicial review of my action on this appeal is available to you in the United States District Court for the judicial district in which you reside or have your principal place of business, or in the District of Columbia, which is also where the records you seek are located.

Sincerely,

Richard L. Huff, Co-Director
Office of Information and Privacy

Major Colman VonKeviczky went on to pastures new, where the CIA were quite unable to reach him, on July 9th, 1998. One wonders if, by some chance he had reached the New Millenium in his long and battle-strewn life, he would have taken on the Central Intelligence Agency one more time.
